MHL highlights

Haggart, Remax get playoff spots

B.W. Haggart Crane Service and Remax Realty were the big winners Sunday as the Milton Hockey League wrapped up its 18-game regular season at Milton Sports Centre.

Haggart doubled up Charles-Knight's 6-3 to claim first place while Remax Realty hammered West End Bulls 8-3 to take fourth spot ahead of Charles-Knight's.

Haggart's win gave the club 29 points, the same as Straight Line Fence. However, a league rule gives Haggart the top spot by virtue of its better record against Fence in their three head-to-head match-ups. rts got two wins and a tie. (It was incorrectly reported last week that Fence would get the top spot.)

In the other game, Fence fought back a third-period challenge from Sandstone Transport to hold on for a 7-6 win.

As a result of the three games, the finish reads Haggart, Fence, Sandstone, Remax, Charles-Knight's and West End. In the first round of the best-of-three semi-finals, which begin Sunday, Remax goes up against West End while Sandstone meets Charles-Knight's in yet another of their famous Town versus Racer's Edge rivalry.

The first game Sunday pits Sandstone and Charles-Knight's while the other two clubs follow in the second game.

Straight Line and Sandstone were featured in the best game of the night. For the first two periods, the only contact appeared to be between Fence teammates Rob Champoux and Eric Ellison who were locked in a race for the scoring title. Each had scored three goals as Fence built a 5-0 lead after two periods and a 7-1 lead five minutes into the third period.

However, Sandstone decided to play some hockey and with five goals spaced almost two minutes apart each drew to within one with 1:12 left in the game.

Sandstone pulled goalie Phil Bailey with about two minutes left which resulted in one goal and led to two good scoring chances for the equalizer. However, Fence goalie Ed House settled down and made several good saves.

The placid game heated up in the final minute. Fence coach Bert Bertoli protested when it appeared that Sandstone was caught with too many men on the ice. The extra player went undetected for some time and Bertoli, attempting to draw referee Jim Turner's attention, threw a water bottle and towels onto the ice. Turner noticed the debris and ejected Bertoli, with a game misconduct, out of the game.

Then with just 10 seconds left, Sandstone players Randy Coulson and Dave Harnden argued vehemently against an icing call and were both given unsportsmanlike conduct minors. Combined with the face-off in Sandstone's zone and the two-men short position, Sandstone was prevented from mounting a last-second surge.

Champoux and Eric Ellison finished with three goals apiece which gave Ellison the scoring title by two points over his teammate. Don Habbkirk added a single.

Harnden paced Sandstone with two goals while Ed Loeprich, Jay Norland, Randy Coulson and Rick Serafini added one apiece.

Haggart built a 3-0 second-period lead against Charles-Knight's and then fought off a threat to post the three-goal win. Charles-Knight's narrowed the gap to 4-3 with just four minutes remaining before Peter Rota, with his second goal of the game, notched the insurance goal.

Steve Wilson and Rota fired two goals apiece while Mike Murray and Dan Agar added one each for Haggart. Dean Villa, Don Hearn's and Buddy Thomas played for Charles-Knight's. A win would have put Charles-Knight's up against West End in the playoffs. However, the loss pits them against Sandstone.

Remax fought lethargy to fire four third-period goals and take the win and fourth place against West End.

Les Wilson and Duane Stark were two-goal marksmen for Remax while Joe Todd, Mike Kalapaka, Calvin Snow and Bob Baker had one goal each. Rod Hough, Bill Goencz and Doug Strath replied with singles for west End.

Slashes — The Molson player-of-the-week award went to Steve Wilson, of B.W. Haggart. Wilson had two goals and continued to play his aggressive up-and-down style.

— The first round of the playoffs are both best-of-three affairs. The semi-finals, which will include Haggart and Fence, are also best-of-threes.

Springers . . .

April. Coach Janet Campbell and Assistant Head coach Vicki Landsborough said they were extremely pleased with the weekend's results.

"We have no right to do as well as we did," said Campbell. "We achieved an extremely high level of performance despite the obvious training problems we incur daily by the facility restraints placed upon us because of the nature of our training centre in the old Milton Fire hall."

Landsborough said "she felt that it was very difficult to compete against many clubs who have dedicated gymnasiums in which to train."

Awards for the meet were presented by councillors Rose Harrison and Don Knight representing the town.

Proceeds from the weekend will go towards the club's facility fund.

The third Central Region meet will be held in Burlington on the first weekend of April.

Recreation fun competition:

Friday evening fun to a qualifying competition, the Recreation club put together a fun competition.

The evening was judged but was primarily intended to be an evening of enjoyment and entertainment for parents and gymnasts alike. Full details and results of the meet will be printed next week.

—Spring registration will take place during the first week of March. For more details, see the ad inside the sports section.
