Town & Countrye spiel closes the curling season

This is the second-last column of the year and I'm not sure who is more thankful — the members or myself. As the season winds down, our girls are still going strong.

Recently, Willie Peddie, Louise Kemp, Pat Buchanan and Noreen Hurren won a major ladies spiel at Chinguacousy.

Also, don't forget that the club's final fling is May 5. It's just $10 per person for the time of your life. The social committee members have tickets. Call Brian Smith for details.

This weekend, the Town and Countrye bonspiel was played. A great party took place Saturday night and it was fantastic to see the large turnout. We should hold a party like that every weekend.

Now, onto the important stuff — the first annual Curling Cue awards. Since there was no time to get our awards televised this year, you will need to trust our awards' staff that each category was hotly contested and the winners names have been kept sealed in a mayonnaise jar on Funk and Wagnals back porch.

Now here they are:

Mr. Dress-up: Won by Al MacDonald for his sparkling red-and-blue ensemble. Al beat Tony Amott who lost mainly through excessive facial hair.

King of the Rats: Bob Spence for managing the wagering on the fast track rats at the club Friday night.

Best Looking Director: Winners by a mile were Louise Kemp and Linda (B.A.) Adams. Attendance at board meetings next year will definitely improve.

Best Teams: Ron Rowley's and Steve Oldford's in a tie.

Best Legs: Jim Sifton. He has a lot of ladies jealous.

Junior Support: Richard Larente, who did a great job running the junior curling sections this year.

Mr. Congeniality: Doug Craven for the time and ef-curling cues

with STEVE KINDREE

fort put into social curling.

Spares of the Year: Ruby and Fred Childs for the great jobs they did as tarbenders while Willie Gallinger was away.

Prince of the Make-up Games: Ken Hannon, who was a hands-down winner.

Blonde Bombshell: To Wendy Devlin. Where has this delightful lady been hiding.

Best President of the Year: This was a closely fought category but was finally won by Morley Rasmussen.

Mr. Interlocutor: For humour and effective handling of Andy Mezei, this award goes to Larry McGregor.

Mr. Town & Countrye: For humbleness and humility and effective handling of Larry McGregor, this award goes to Andy Mezei.

Good Sport: To Brian and Rhysiea Smith, who also looked good in their new apparel.

Ice Maker of the Year: This one was close. However, Jim Plumbtree won out over Bill Gallinger.

Righteous Writer: Only one person could win this one — Barbie Burtwistle.

Betty Crocker & Duncan Hines Award: To Joanne Spence and her committee for their marvelous dinner at the Town & Countrye.

Last, but not least, the final real curling of the year takes place this week with the mixed and men's competitive championships being played tonight (Wednesday) and Thursday night.

RICK BLOCK says:
Home Improvements Don't Cost Money They Save Money

Let's Talk About: Exterior Trims

- 5' SEAMLESS EAVESTROUGH
- 5' trough can handle water from the greatest downpour. Being seamless, eliminates those annoying leaks. They are pre-painted to match and co-ordinate with the siding materials.
- SOFFIT & FASCIA
- Gives new beauty and protection to eaves, overhangs and porch ceilings.
- Vented soffits keeps overhang dry and helps prevent rot.
- SHUTTERS & WINDOW CLADDING
- That extra touch that reduces maintenance and gives visual balance.
