RIDE charges down in Halton

Halton Regional Police One District, which includes Milton and Halton Hills, tallied the highest number of 'over 80' drinking and driving charges in the region in this season's holiday Reduce Impaired Driving Everywhere (R.I.D.E.) campaign.

Police released the figures last Tuesday, which showed nine people in One District, three people in Oakville and eight people in Burlington, (total 20) were charged with driving with a blood alcohol level of 80 mg per 100 ml of blood. In 2011, 37 people were charged with the same offence.

Additional impaired charges were laid against four people in Milton, three in Oakville and five in Burlington.

This year's RIDE campaign ran from December 4 to January 2 and saw 18,538 vehicles stopped in Halton: 5,872 in Milton/Halton Hills, 6,591 in Oakville and 6,075 in Burlington.

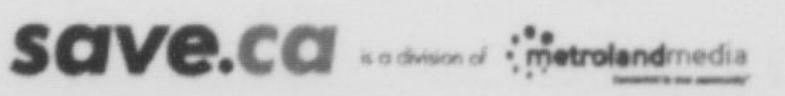

"The Halton Regional Police Service is committed to enhancing community and road safety within our region through the enforcement of impaired driving offences, and especially through the RIDE program," said Deputy Chief Andrew Fletcher. "In partnership with our community, we can collectively respond to and prevent impaired driving offences, and we encourage citizens who suspect
