Campbellville School reunion coming up

Students of Campbellville School during 1950 to 1960 (or thereabouts before it closed) and area residents at the time are invited to attend a reunion on Saturday, May 4. Students can attend St. David's Church from 1 to 5 p.m. for the first-ever class reunion.

Organizers of the event say past students will have a chance to reminisce about the popular baseball team that was often in the news at the time – long before the Mohawk Inn or Mohawk Racetrack and even prior to Hwy. 401 being built.

Thank you for 25 great years!
