

Mountsberg to offer plenty of activities over this Family Day weekend

Mountsberg Conservation Area will hold Tales by a Winter Fire on Family Day weekend (Saturday to Monday), with activities and interests for the whole family. The event will offer horse-drawn sleigh rides ending with tasty hot chocolate and marshmallows. Weather permitting, there will also be tobogganing on the park's gentle slopes for the kids and young at heart. During Tales by a Winter Fire, visitors can watch Birds of Prey presentations in the Raptor Centre, while chances to see the bison feed and Mountsberg's Percheron horses will no doubt delight the animal lovers in the group. There are kilometres of wooded trails for those wishing a quiet retreat into nature.

Puppeteers will entertain several times in the Visitor's Centre. For those under 12, or wish they were, staff have activities to cross off their list of '50 Things To Do Before You Are 12'. Or visitors can just chill out to stories of long ago by a crackling fire. Although some activities are snow-dependent, the winter celebration will take place regardless of the weather. Regular park admission applies for Tales by a Winter Fire. Conservation Halton annual members only need to show their pass for admission. Mountsberg is located at 2259 Millborough Line in Campellville. From Guelph Line, turn west on Campellville Road for 4 km and then go north on Millborough Line for 1 km.
