

Town receives two marketing awards

The Town of Milton's multi-year marketing campaign promoting business and tourism development has been recognized with two marketing awards.

The Economic Development team's "Milton Delivers" advertising series was recognized as the best in the Business Development Advertising Campaign in Ontario by the Economic Developers Council of Ontario (EDCO) while "Milton This Way Up" was named best in the Business Development Branding category.

'Milton This Way Up' was also one of four finalists for the Lieutenant Governor's Award for Marketing Excellence in Ontario. The Town's Economic Development Senior Manager Andrew Siltala presented Mayor Gord Krantz with the awards at last week's council meeting after receiving them earlier in the month from the non-profit group.

Krantz thanked the EDCO on behalf of council for recognizing the Town's effort to encourage business development.

"We have seen consistent economic growth over the last few years, and will continue to do so by promoting Milton as the best place to invest," he said.

Congratulations to all HCDSB employees on Staff Appreciation Day!

The success of the Halton Catholic District School Board rests entirely on the talents, dedication, and efforts of our 3,400 employees.

On Friday, March 8, 2013, we acknowledge and celebrate the members of our staff community who make such a difference in the lives of more than 30,000 students, entrusted to our care each day.

For all you do in your role, and for all you do that goes over and above the call of duty, to support our students...

Thank
