

Cold clean-up

Dozens of local residents turned out Saturday morning for the annual Nassagaweya Spring Roadside Clean-up Day despite the unseasonably cold and snowy weather. At left, Sarim Nadeem, 15, and his mother Humera abandon their clean-up efforts to seek shelter when a gusty snow squall descends on the area. Inset, high school students Mitchell MacDonald (foreground) and Andre Bernardo work their way south-bound along Guelph Line, picking up trash. Graham Paine / Canadian Champion (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)
