

Showing their Canadian pride

In preparation for Victoria Day, the Milton Historical Society has been selling red, white and blue fans and bunting, along with Canadian flags at the Waldie Blacksmith Shop on James Street. Here, Marsha Waldie (left) and Gloria Brown hold a few of the fans and flags for sale. The flags, fans and bunting will be on sale one last time this Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to noon. ## Asian Heritage Festival on Saturday

Halton Regional Police will host the Asian Heritage Festival at Milton Sports Centre Saturday.

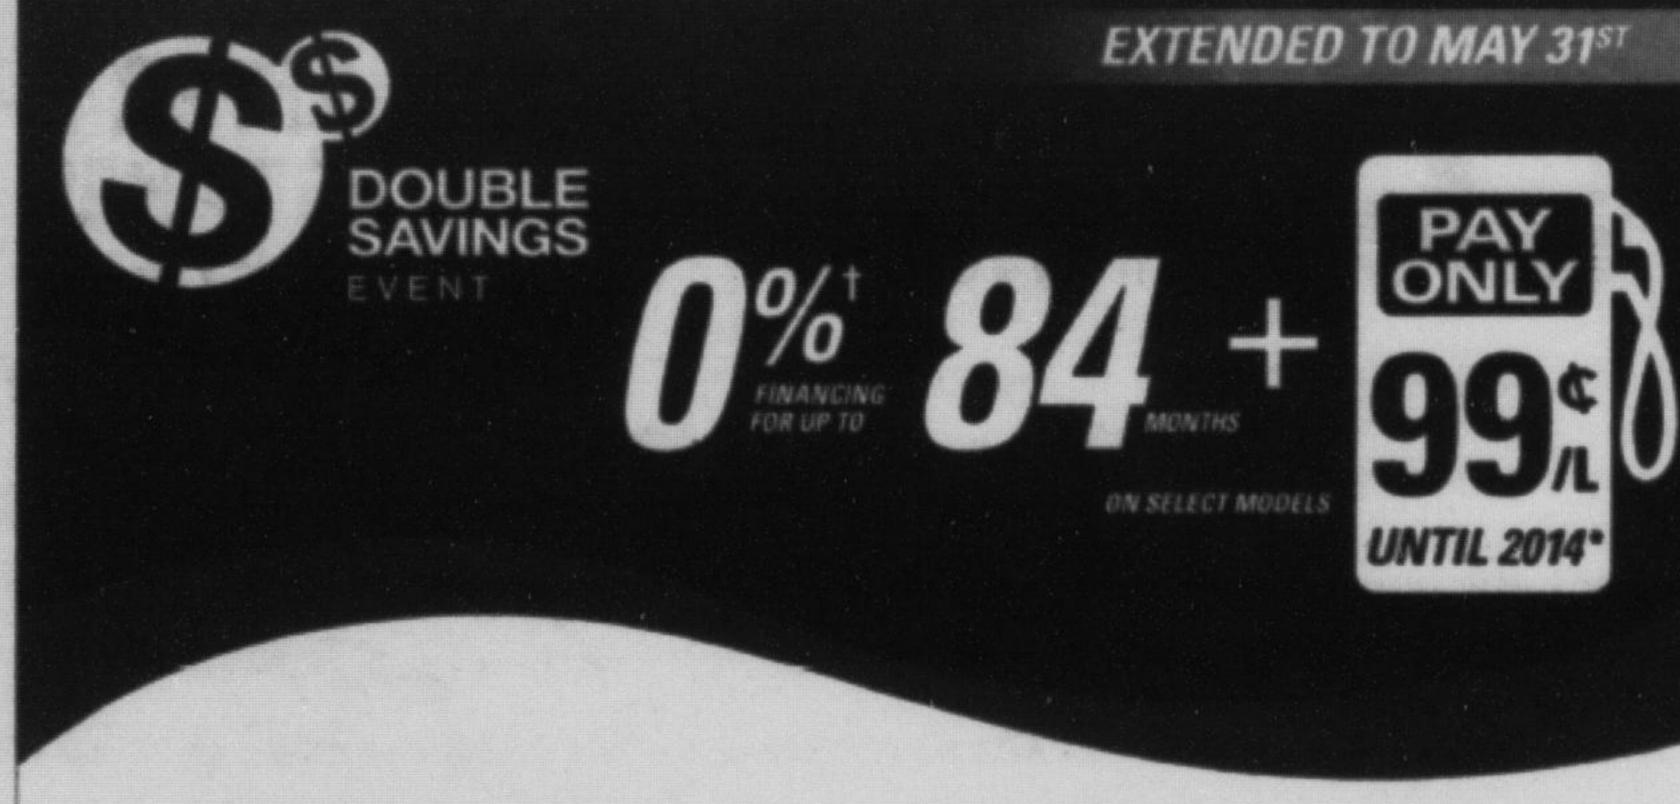

The event runs from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and will feature special guests Tiger Jeet Singh and Tiger Jeet Singh Jr., former professional wrestlers turned philanthropists who were recently honoured with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee medals.

Halton Liberal provincial candidate Indira Naidoo-Harris will serve as master of ceremo-

The day's events will include performances by Bhangra dancers and Dhoi drummer, the Tiger Jeet Singh Public School band and choir, Korean girls dance group, Taiko drumming from Do Kon Daiko, Chinese Lion dancers, Rakhine Lotus Flower Dance and a Tai Chi Group.

There will also be a variety of cultural information booths and vendors.

Lunch will be served by Funky Thai and the Alemilia group for a nominal fee.
