

Hot off the grill

M&M Meat Shops across Canada and right here at home, fired-up their barbecue grills with franchisees and volunteers donning aprons to flip burgers and turn hot dogs to raise funds for the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada. This was the 25th annual Charity BBQ Day, with locations across Canada raising roughly $1.2 million this year to bring the company's overall tally to more than $24.3 million for medical research into finding a cure for Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD), which has "one of the highest reported number of cases right here in Canada. Here, local franchisee Scott Schlotzhauer serves up a double patty burger hot off the grill, as retired Milton Fire Chief Harold Penson stands by ready with a fire extinguisher if things get too hot.
