

Helping out the cause

McDonald's annual McHappy Day fundraiser in support of Ronald McDonald House, children's charities and local charities, saw volunteers, including police and firefighters don aprons to help collect donations for the charitable event.

Here, Halton police officer Noel Bowes, the new community support officer out of 12 Division, had no problem getting motorists to stop and make a donation in exchange for a balloon in the drive-thru lane. Graham Paine / Canadian Champion (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)

Anti-bullying event set for Sunday

An anti-bullying celebration will be held Sunday afternoon at Campbellville's St. David's Presbyterian Church.

Entitled Bullying 360-degrees: All Around We Can Stop It! and put on by Halton District School Board, the event runs from 3 to 5 p.m. and will feature guest speakers Const. Mike Dinsmore and self-esteem expert Sereta Purdy.

Live musical entertainment by Steve Rivers and Alysia Rae, a cheerleading demonstration, refreshments and bracelets being sold in memory of Amanda Todd will round out the festivities.

The event is free with a goodwill donation to the Give Respect — Get Respect program. St. David's church is located at 132 Main St. N. in Campbellville.
