

Business after hours

The Milton Chamber of Commerce held its Business After Hours recently, with CWB Group hosting the April event. At left, CWB President and CEO Douglas Luciani (right) shows Chudleigh's President Dean Chudleigh and Mayor Gord Krantz a robotic plasma cutter, which costs more than $250,000. Inset, the Champion employees and Carol McDonald of McMarketing take their turn making submissions to the Chamber's 125th anniversary time capsule, of which Chamber members will add to monthly throughout this year. Here, Chamber President Richard Bolton (second from left) holds the time capsule lid as (from left) Champion Sales Representative Fiona Rudder, Metroland Media Group Halton Division General-Manager David Harvey, Champion Advertising Manager Katy Letourneau, Champion Sales Representative Clem Scholtz and McDonald show their time capsule submissions.
