Milton Rotary Club expands its dictionary deliver program

The Milton Rotary Club is expanding its annual literacy project to Catholic schools.

Local Rotarians are currently visiting every elementary school in town and hand delivering free dictionaries to nearly 1,500 Grade 3 students.

The campaign is one of many initiatives focused on Milton youth.

"We appreciate the collaboration with the Halton school boards, which are helping us help the youth of Milton by allowing us to present these dictionaries," said Rod McLachlan, Milton Rotary Club public relations co-ordinator.

"By providing dictionaries to Grade 3 students, not only are we able to promote literacy for these children, but in many cases it directly helps entire families which are new to Canada and English."

The Rotary Club is seeking donations and businesses to sponsor the project in exchange for the company's logo appearing as a sticker inside the front cover of the dictionaries.

Those interested can contact the club at (289) 878-5437 or rodmcclachlan@hotmail.com.

Annual MS golf tournament set

The Halton MS Society is holding its ninth annual Golf For A Cure tournament on Wednesday, June 19 at Burlington's Crosswinds Golf and Country Club.

Roughly $92,000 has been raised over the last eight years, with 100 per cent of the proceeds going to the local chapter, which provides a variety of services — including counseling, education and assistance with mobility devices — to those affected by MS and their loved ones.

The tournament's organizing committee is looking for sponsors, prize donors and of course golfers.

To sign up, make a donation or for more information, contact Michelle Kingson at (905) 681-8770 or Michelle.Kingson@mssociety.com.
