

Season-opening stalemate

Rallying from three separate deficits, including an early 2-0 hole, the bantam Mavericks gutted out a 4-4 tie with Owen Sound last Thursday in season-opening play at Memorial Arena. At right, Milton's Richard Imus delivers one of his three goals, going top shelf against Owen Sound's netminder. Inset, Maverick Joey Szabo squeezes past an Owen Sound opponent.

Red Sox hammered

The Senior Red Sox' season-opening success was abruptly interrupted Saturday, as the experienced Mississauga South West Twins delivered savvy pitching and flawless fielding to thump them 9-2.

This dropped Milton to 2-1 on the year.

A monster two-run homer by Craig Howse in the sixth inning accounting for the Red Sox' scoring, while Adam Aubie led with three hits and rookie second-baseman Don Smith had a pair of singles.

Rookie starter Ryan Wagler and young reliever Steve David were each hit for four earned runs by the Twins. With a 12-hit attack overshadowing a few fielding glitches, the Senior Red Sox outlasted the Niagara Metros 8-6 Thursday in St. Catharines.

Adam Aubie, James Bruce and Steve Lauzon each had two hits, while Aubie, Don Smith and Kevin Cooper drove in a pair of runs apiece. Balanced hitting allowed the Red Sox to prevail despite committing four errors. Ian Zettle worked five innings for the win.
