

Halton Catholic District School Board – Sharing the Spirit Student Awards of Excellence

Alexandra Hamilton
Guardian Angels

Alexandra truly embodies what it means to be a well-rounded, spiritual individual. From the Student Faith Team, to the soccer team to the school's musical production, her contributions have touched the entire student body.

Marijana Loncar
Our Lady of Victory

Marijana has been a role model for others. She balances a solid academic standing with athletics and other extra-curricular pursuits. She is a valued asset at the school and her many talents are generously shared with all the people she encounters.

Abbey Pantusa
Holy Rosary

Abbey consistently demonstrates many Catholic leadership qualities that exemplify a successful student — curiosity, enthusiasm, hard work, respect, perseverance and dedication. She is actively involved in various aspects of 'school life.'

Kyle Zammit
St. Anthony of Padua

Kyle not only embodies the values and teachings of Christ, but also displays a commitment to the Catholic faith at home, school and within his community, especially with his hard work as part of the social justice ambassadors.

Jacquelynne Myles
Holy Rosary

Spirit of Inclusion Award Recipient
Without hesitation, Jacquelynne always puts the needs of others before herself. Her cheerful disposition and respectful manner make others feel comfortable and valued in her presence.

Daniella Dela Pena
Lumen Christi

Daniella has consistently displayed the qualities and Catholic values that we strive to impart on our students. Her leadership skills, positive attitude and excellent academic achievements is a model for others.

Roxanne Duke
St. Peter

Roxanne is a very active and highly regarded student who has gained the admiration of her peers and teachers alike. She is always inclusive of others, puts forth her best effort in all she endeavours and sets a worthy example for all students to emulate.

Nicole Berza
Bishop Reding

Excellence Awards
Nicole is a student who personifies Catholic student leadership. Her extensive involvement, academic integrity and dedication to her community make her a worthy recipient of this award.

Brandon Folia
Our Lady of Fatima

Brandon is a respectful, polite and compassionate individual. He willingly and enthusiastically assists his peers and the school community. Anyone who's worked with him has benefited from his many gifts and talents.
