

Volunteer tutors sought for adults

Literacy North Halton is recruiting volunteer tutors and will hold an orientation session next week.

Do you have three hours a week to spare to work with an adult who needs to upgrade their reading, writing, math or basic computer skills? The orientation session will be held Wednesday at 7 p.m.

For more information, call Literacy North Halton at (905) 873-2700.

All the Comforts of Home— Without the Work

Betty Hallamore's decision to move to Martindale Gardens was totally understandable. She wanted to shed the responsibilities of running a house and was ready to let someone else do the work. Not surprising, given that she was 90 at the time! Nine years later, Betty loves living at Martindale and cherishes her independence. "The staff makes you feel right at home. I have a great social life and I love not having to do housework or cooking!"

Milton nets Maple Leafs great for unveiling

Maple Leafs great Daryl Sittler was on hand at the Milton Sports Centre Friday morning for the unveiling of Canada Post's new Maple Leafs commemorative stamp. The unveiling was held in Milton because Canada Post falls under the responsibilities of Halton MP Lisa Raitt, minister of transport.
