

Pet Valu holding animal adoptions

Those interested in adopting a cat or dog may want to visit Pet Valu this weekend.

The 890 Main St. pet store — in the Real Canadian Superstore plaza — will hold a cat adoption event in partnership with the Upper Credit Humane Society Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The adoption of a cat or kitten costs $160 for approved homes.

The fee includes spaying or neutering, micro-chipping, de-worming and vaccinations. A cat carrier is required to take the animal home.

On Sunday, a dog adoption event will be held — in partnership with the newly-formed A Dog's Dream Rescue — during the same hours. The cost depends on the type of breed adopted.

Senior volunteers wanted for SAVIS

Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention Services (SAVIS) of Halton is looking for volunteers for its Senior Circles Project.

Senior members of the community are invited to apply to become senior leaders, who will help assist with the facilitation of discussion circles about various issues affecting seniors. These issues include elder abuse and social isolation.

Approximately eight hours of training will be provided for senior leaders.

Those interested in volunteering are asked to contact Vinitha Nair at (905) 825-3622, ext. 54, by October 15.

For more information on SAVIS services, visit www.savisofhalton.org.

Donate today and help support women's health in your community.

Every September, Shoppers Drug Mart® stores across Canada set up a Tree of Life in support of women's health, with 100% of all proceeds going directly to women's health initiatives in your community. Over the years, you've contributed over $20 million and we're hoping you'll help us make a difference again this year.

Visit your local Shoppers Drug Mart between September 14 and October 11 and buy a leaf ($1), a butterfly ($5), an acorn ($10) or a cardinal ($50) to help women's health grow in your community. To donate online or find out which women's charity your local Shoppers Drug Mart store supports, visit shoppersdrugmart.ca/treeoflife
