Councillor gets 13 days in jail for violating bail conditions

By Julie Slack
 CANADIAN CHAMPION STAFF

Local and Regional Councillor Tony Lambert said he has no plans to step down from his position after being sentenced Tuesday to serve 13 days in jail intermittently. Lambert pleaded guilty in Milton court Tuesday to failing to comply with bail conditions. He was also placed on probation for a year. Halton Regional Police charged Lambert after his arrest Monday afternoon at Town Hall.

In an interview yesterday, Lambert, 45, told the Champion he was carrying a can of beer in his bag on Monday at Town Hall when he was arrested. Court heard that Lambert was in possession of three cans of beer. Two hours after the initial interview, he confirmed with the Champion that he had three cans in his possession. Lambert said a police officer was there to talk to him about an issue that

Kool Kats Rescue founder charged

By John Bkila
 METROLAND WEST MEDIA GROUP

The Oakville & Milton Humane Society (OMHS) has charged a woman with nine counts of animal cruelty in the recent case of the removal of more than 100 cats from a Halton Hills home.

The accused is the founder of a registered charity, Kool Kats Rescue.

On September 5, the OMHS reported to a single-family home at 16574 Steeles Ave., just west of Winston Churchill Boulevard and Tenth Line near Milton, after receiving an anonymous tip and began transferring 117 felines from the area to its 445 Cornwall Rd. shelter.

Ten dead cats were removed at the time of the rescue and one was in such poor health it had to be euthanized following the advice of veterinarians, according to the OMHS.

The charges were laid under the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (OSPCA) Act and are as follows:

- permit distress
- fail to provide care necessary for gen-<sup>erally</sup>
