Earrings stolen from women's ears

Two Milton women had their gold earrings stolen from their ears while they were out for a walk Saturday.

Halton police say the women were walking near Derry Road and Miller Way at about 5:45 p.m. when they were greeted by strangers, a man and a woman, who offered them necklaces as gifts.

The women declined the offer, but the strangers continued to engage them, hugging them and touching them around their necks, police say. They parted ways, and the women later realized their earrings had been taken. Police are investigating.
