

Nominations open for Heroes in Home

Every day, people living in Halton provide care that enables others to live fulfilling lives despite the limitations of age, illness or disability.

Caregiving 'heroes' trade in costumes and capes for compassion and care, which improves the lives of individuals faced with health challenges.

The Mississauga Halton Community Care Access Centre (CCAC) will honour these paid and unpaid caregivers at its fourth annual Heroes in the Home Caregiver Recognition Awards.

"We know there are many caregiving heroes in our community," said Caroline Brereton, CEO, Mississauga Halton CCAC.

While they typically don't consider themselves heroes, caregivers make a significant and meaningful difference in the lives of people of all ages.

Mississauga Halton CCAC, which coordinates in-home and community support services, information and referral, and long-term care placement, invites residents to submit nominations for the 2013 Heroes in the Home Caregiver Recognition Awards. Whether your hero is a family member, friend, neighbour, volunteer or health care professional, all are eligible.

Since 2010, the Mississauga Halton CCAC has honoured 285 heroes. Caregivers in Milton will be recognized at an event on December 5.

Veterans can discuss benefits with PSO

Veterans are welcome to book a visit with the Provincial Service Officer (PSO) who will visit the Milton Legion Branch on Wednesday, Oct. 23.

PSOs are familiar with Veterans Affairs benefits and are aware of other federal, provincial and municipal programs that might be appropriate.

PSOs devote their time to Disability Pension

Claims and they're involved in the preparation of the claims.

In addition to PSOs, each Legion has one or two Branch Service Officers (BSO) who can be called upon to respond to a variety of questions and situations.

To schedule a visit, contact Milton BSO Don Hipwell at (905) 878-9005 and leave your service number or 'K' number.
