

Lest we forget

Milton recognized Remembrance Day with a short parade and service at Evergreen Cemetery Monday morning. Clockwise from top left, veterans, dignitaries and service club members gather at the cemetery. Royal Canadian Legion Branch 136 President Patricia Thompson makes her address. Flags are carried to the ceremony. Tori Wheeler — who volunteered many hours to sell poppies — places a poppy on the cenotaph. An RCMP officer salutes during the service. Eric Riehl / Canadian Champion (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)
