

Miracle on Main Street event set to return, unwrapped toys sought

It's time to exercise some holiday generosity, with the upcoming return of Miracle on Main Street.

Put on by the Tiger Jeet Singh Foundation, the annual Christmas fundraiser is set for Monday, Dec. 9 at Troy's Diner.

Running from 6 to 9 a.m., the event is free to Miltonians of all ages with a donation of an unwrapped toy. Donations of cash, non-perishable food items and life essential products will also be accepted and shared between the Salvation Army, Halton Women's Place and young patients at the Toronto Hospital for Sick Children and McMaster Children's Hospital.

To date, the foundation — of which Troy's Diner owner Troy Newton serves as director — has raised half-a-million dollars in combined sponsorship and donations.

"The objective of Miracle on Main Street is to promote the spirit of giving among all faiths," said Tiger Jeet Singh Jr., president of the Tiger Jeet

Singh Foundation. "No matter what religion, colour or race you are, sickness and poverty do not discriminate, and neither should the spirit of giving."

As in past years, Miracle on Main Street will include plenty of live entertainment, including rides and stilt walkers, as well as a visit by Walter Gretzky and Toronto Maple

Leafs alumni.

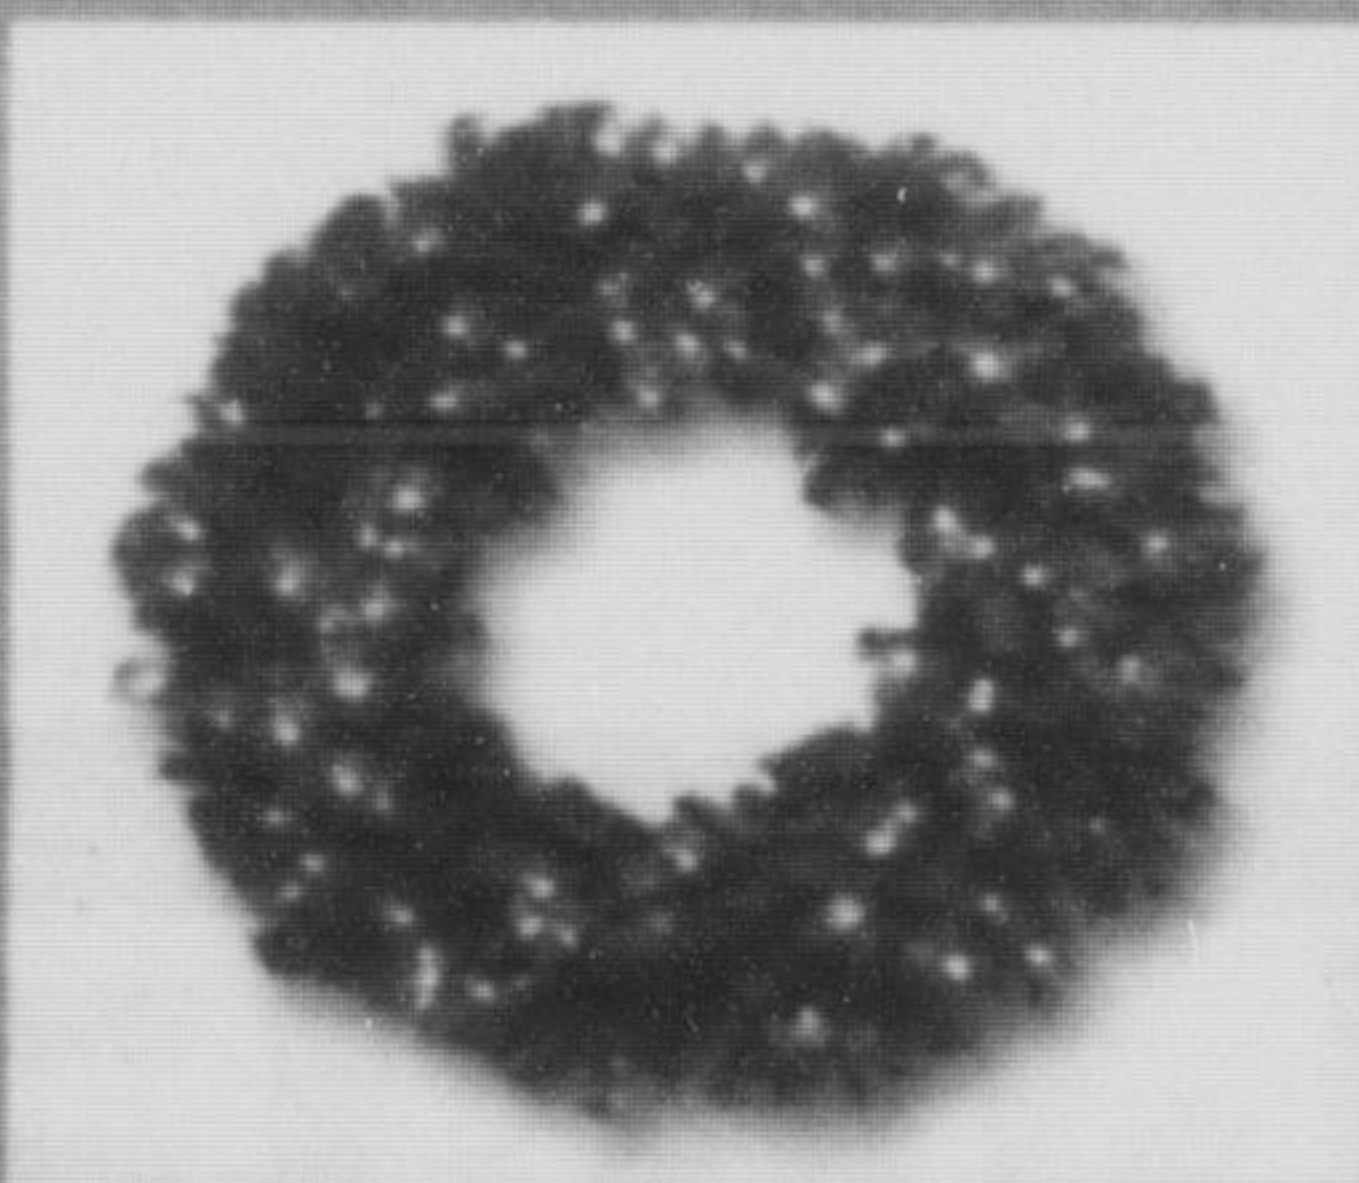

Carols will be sung and autographs and pictures will be available with Gretzky, wrestling legend Tiger Jeet Singh and his son, former WWE star

Tiger Jeet Singh Jr.

Those unable to attend the event can drop off donations beforehand at Troy's Diner, or online at www.MiracleOnMain.ca.
