Lambert to run in fall election

By Michael Gregory

Tony Lambert is back on the campaign trail a little over a month after town council voted to oust the local and regional councillor from his seat.

Tony Lambert

The 46-year-old submitted his nomination for the local and regional seat for Wards 1, 6, 7 and 8 — the same position he lost after breaching a section of the municipal act for jail time served in the fall of 2013.

Council voted in late January to remove Lambert from his position on local and regional council because of his incarceration. At the time, Lambert said there were "underlining emotions" due to his divorce that caused him to make mistakes.

He pleaded guilty in October 2013 for failing to comply with bail conditions by possessing alcohol.

GO commuters issued warning about parking at superstore

By Michael Gregory
 CANADIAN CHAMPION STAFF

Milton's Real Canadian Superstore is warning drivers that it plans to tag and tow vehicles it suspects belong to GO Transit customers who are parking in the adjacent grocery chain's lot.

In recent weeks, a parking enforcement company, hired by the grocery store, has been placing flyers on dozens of vehicles advising them of the impending enforcement.

"If you are a GO commuter and parking in the Loblaws lot for more than three hours you should use the GO parking lot instead," the notice reads, advising vehicle owners that, after March 18, "any unauthorized vehicles will be tagged and/or towed at the vehicle owner's expense."

The parking situation at the Milton GO station continues to be a delicate one, with limited spaces available for those opting for
