

Rockin' the house

The 11th annual Milly Spiel Memorial Bonspiel, in support of the Lupus Foundation of Ontario, was recently held at the Milton Curling Club. More than $6,000 was raised for research efforts toward finding a cure for the disease that took Spiel's life in 2003. At right, George Meyers shows his lighter side during the bonspiel. Inset, curlers take to the ice.

Conservation Halton elects its new board

For the fourth year in a row, John Vice and Keith Bird were elected to their positions as chair and vice-chair of the Conservation Halton Board of Directors. Conservation Halton (CH) held its 58th inaugural board meeting on February 20 when Vice, citizen appointee from Burlington, was acclaimed as chair, and Bird, Oakville local and regional and councillor, was acclaimed as vice-chair. Vice has been on the CH board for 10 years, while Bird has been a board member for all but two years since 1974. During those two years, Bird was on the Conservation Halton Foundation Board of Directors. The chair and vice-chair are elected by members of the CH board for one-year terms at the annual inaugural meeting. They must be current members of the CH Board of Directors and be nominated by their peers. CH's 2014 board is made up of elected officials and citizen representatives from the communities within CH's watershed — Burlington, Halton Hills, Hamilton, Milton, Mississauga, Oakville and Puslinch. Milton board members include Mayor Gord Krantz, Councillor Cindy Lunau and Councillor Rick Malboeuf.
