April is Canadian Cancer Society's Daffodil Month Buy a daffodil pin to support Canadians living with cancer

Every three minutes another Canadian is faced with fighting cancer. Throughout April, volunteers in Milton and across Ontario will be working together to raise funds for the Canadian Cancer Society during Daffodil Month.

"We've reached a tipping point and now, more than ever, we need Canadians' support," says Sandy McDonald, Fundraising Assistant, Canadian Cancer Society Halton Unit "Every donation made during our April Daffodil campaign will bring us one step closer to preventing cancer, detecting it earlier, improving treatments and helping Canadians live longer, healthier lives."

Here is how you can support Canadians living with cancer this April:

- Buy and wear a daffodil pin throughout April.
- Donate online at cancer.ca.
- Attend a Daffodil month event in your community.
- Donate when a volunteer canvasser knocks on your door.
- Participate in a Society fundraising event in your community.
- Sign up to participate in a Relay For Life event in your community or sponsor a Relay participant.

Money raised during Daffodil Month helps the Canadian Cancer Society fund cancer research, provide information and deliver programs and services to prevent cancer and to support people living with cancer right here in Milton; advocate on behalf of Canadians on important health and cancer issues.

"Change won't happen without you. Donating to the Society makes you part of a vibrant cross-Canada team that is working to transform the way we understand this disease and live with it."

Visit cancer.ca or call 905-845-5231 for more information about Daffodil Month, where to buy your daffodil pin or to volunteer just two hours of your time.
