Man charged in store robbery

Halton police have laid charges in connection with a Mac's convenience store robbery Saturday night.

According to police, at around 10:15 p.m., a man entered the store, located at 321 Bronté St. S.

He approached the store clerk and demanded cash from the register.

The clerk complied and a quantity of cash was taken.

The man then fled the area in an unknown direction.

No weapons were seen and there were no injuries.

Police issued a media release yesterday (Wednesday) morning asking for the public's assistance in identifying a suspect.

In the early afternoon, police issued a second media release announcing that charges had been laid.

A 23-year-old man faces charges of robbery and wearing a disguise.

No further information was available at press time.
