

Community workshop aims to make a difference for kids

An event next week in Milton will tackle a subject that's topical to many: anti-bullying.

An anti-bullying group in Milton and Lions Quest Canada will hold a workshop to help people who work with youth learn ways to make a difference in their lives.

It will take place Monday from 7 to 10 p.m. at Milton Lions Hall, Memorial Arena, 77 Thompson Rd. S.

Lions Quest is a program that provides teachers and parents the tools to deal with bullying and other antisocial behaviours.

Organizers encourage adults and youth who care about their children, their future and the well-being of the community to attend.

Attendees will learn how simple, everyday actions can have an impact and they'll learn to shift from focusing on young people's problems to promoting their strengths. They will also be encouraged to commit to making a difference.

Register by calling Kay Nelles at (1-800) 265-2680, ext. 102, or email kay@lionsquest.ca.
