Globe Productions to present The Wizard of Oz at arts centre

Audience members at an upcoming Globe Youth Productions play may think they're in Kansas.

That's because the local theatre group will present The Wizard of Oz at the Milton Centre for the Arts May 9 and 10 at 8 p.m. and May 10 and 11 at 2 p.m.

Milton resident Emma Hurst is among the performers. She's been involved in theatre for two years, encouraged by her mother to participate. Emma said she enjoys theatre, and watching actors perform on stage. In The Wizard of Oz, Emma is part of the Senior Ensemble, and has a role as a Poppy and a Citizen of Oz. She said she really enjoys the music in Oz and the wonderful dancing choreography.

Emma said the play practices are going well, and she loves working with the directing team of Rob Woodcock, Elizabeth Bell, and Dale Wood since she says they are very well organized.

Because the show is taking place at the Milton Centre for the Arts, Emma is happy that many of her Milton school friends and teachers will be able to see it.

Other cast members are: Aniela Gregori, Junior Ensemble, Matthieu Verdon, Scarecrow, Rachel Currie, Dorothy, Jenna Lausic, Senior Ensemble, Jake Zanth, Lion, Thomas Morley, Tin Man and Ethan Adema, Junior Ensemble. Tickets, which cost $27, or $25 for seniors, youth aged 12 years and under and students, can be purchased at the Milton Centre for the Arts box office by calling (905) 878-6000 or at www.miltoncentreforthearts.com.

Best-selling author to visit Milton

Canadian author Cathy Marie Buchanan will talk about her national bestselling novel, The Painted Girls, during a visit to Milton Public Library next week.

Set in Paris, the novel focuses on the Van Goethem sisters, who after the passing of their father set out into the world of music and theatre in an effort to avoid financial ruin. Buchanan will speak about her book — a New York Times bestseller — Wednesday at the Main Branch (1010 Main St. E.) from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Those interested in attending are asked to register at information@mpl.on.ca or by calling (905) 875-2665, ext. 6263, as seating is limited.

Cathy Marie Buchanan will be in town next week. Ania Szado / Special to the Champion
