Work continues

Slab work underneath what will be the cycling track at the Mattamy National Cycling Centre is currently ongoing. The Toronto 2015 CEO recently spoke to a local group about the Pan/Parapan Am Games and the velodrome. See story page 5. Photo by Joan Romano / Town of Milton

Youths charged in connection with bomb threat

By Julie Slack
CANADIAN CHAMPION STAFF

Two teenagers have been charged in connection with a bomb threat at Jean Vanier Catholic Secondary School April 30, and a much larger investigation by several police services involving 'swatting'.

Halton Regional Police, in connection with several other police services, made the arrests last Thursday. Both youths can't be identified under the Youth Criminal Justice Act. Swatting is designed to garner an emergency response by police officers, specifically Special Weapons And Tactics (SWAT).

Teen remembered as 'one of a kind'

By Ian Holroyd
SPECIAL TO THE CHAMPION

A community is in mourning after a young man succumbed to injuries he sustained when he fell from a moving pick-up truck last week.

Halton Regional Police say the 19-year-old Miltonian was riding in the bed of a moving pick-up truck on Clover Park Crescent shortly after 2:30 a.m. May 4 when he fell from the vehicle as it turned.

The teen was rushed to Hamilton General Hospital where he died May 7.

The Champion has learned the young man is Giovanni (Johnny) Scremin, a recent graduate of Milton District High School. He died two days shy of his 20th birthday.

He was affectionately known as "The Don" among friends and, like many teens, he was passionate about cars.

Some of Scremin's friends immediately took to Facebook to express their grief.

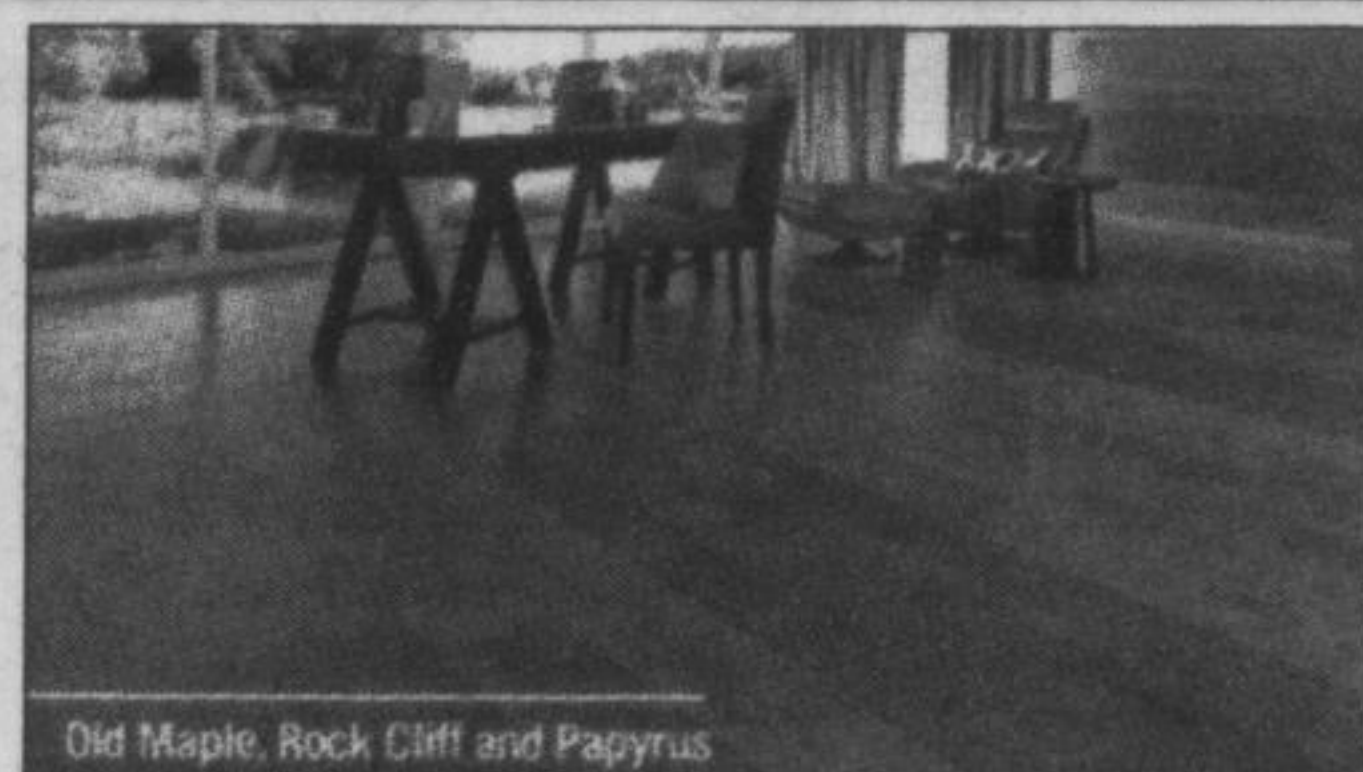

Cam Stockall posted, "You were always the happiest guy around bro." He continued, ...8
