

Rally set to roll at Country Heritage Park May 25

Ready for a rally?

The sixth annual Rally Round the County will be held on Sunday, May 25 at 9 a.m. at Country Heritage Park.

The two-hour car rally features prizes for the top performers and most interesting attire as well as a barbecue.

Rally Master is Jim Kenzie from the Toronto Star Wheels section.

The Kitchener Waterloo Rally Club-organized event is limited to 60 vehicles, with a $60 charge per vehicle.

All funds raised go toward Girls Incorporated of Halton, which strives to help young girls become self-sufficient, fulfilled and responsible adults.

Programs encourage girls to take risks and master physical, intellectual and emotional challenges.

Pre-register at (905) 876-6504 or info@rallyrc.com.

Pre-car rally fundraiser at restaurant

Helping Girls Inc. can be as easy as going out for dinner.

A pre-car rally event for Girls Inc. Halton will be held at Shoeless Joe's next Thursday.

The pre-rally fundraiser will take place from 5 to 8 p.m. where 10 per cent of the proceeds of food sales will go toward Girls Inc. Halton.

The car rally — to be held Sunday, May 25 — will also raise funds for Girls Inc.

The organization is dedicated to helping girls navigate social barriers, their gender, and any economic influences they might have.
