Halton Catholic District School Board – 2014 Student Awards of Excellence

The selected student representatives demonstrated outstanding qualities in the following areas: Catholic leadership, Catholic faith and Catholic school philosophy, family commitment, school community relations (rapport with teachers and other students), involvement in school affairs, community activities and commitment to a difficult situation or task

Kaitlyn Richard
Bishop Reding Secondary School

Kaitlyn is an exceptional student who exemplifies Catholic Leadership with her involvement in all aspects of community life at Bishop Reding. This involvement combined with her academic integrity make her a worthy candidate of this award.

William Burmeister
Jean Vanier School

William is a well-rounded student leader who makes those around him feel better about themselves. He's a Students of Service quad leader and an active member of the Best Buddies chapter, the Student Athletic Association and Student Senate.

Emma Hurst
Our Lady of Victory School

Emma is a faith-centred individual who's able to clearly articulate her beliefs. She exemplifies Catholic values and virtues daily, and strives to support her peer group in reaching their full potential.

Janella Viado
Guardian Angels School

Janella exemplifies excellence academically, athletically and spiritually. She sets high expectations for herself and others and is seen as a positive role model within the school community.

Hannah Dey
Lumen Christi School

Hannah has shown great leadership within the school community. She participates fully in the religious life of the school by organizing and reading at school assemblies and Mass. Hannah is a high academic achiever.

Angel Roque
St. Anthony of Padua School

Angel displays perseverance and dedication to all aspects of the school community, including academics, religious life, social justice and extracurriculars. She's a leader at school and in the community.

Grace Pellizer
Holy Rosary School

Grace possesses all of the qualities that make her an outstanding leader within her school community. She's involved both within her school and greater community and embodies the teachings of Jesus Christ with her interactions with others.

Alliana Meneses
Our Lady of Fatima School

Alliana is a hardworking, dedicated student who consistently practices and exemplifies her Catholic values in everything she does. She's a respectful, polite and compassionate person who's always willing to help to make the school a better place.

Grace Smith
St. Peter School

On a daily basis, Grace emulates Christian leadership, as she integrates her faith in her learning. She collaboratively contributes with her peers, sharing her many gifts and talents for the common good.

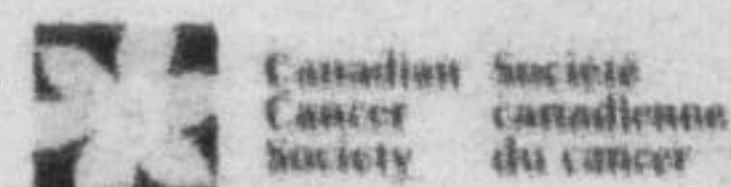

Thank You La Rose Italian Bakery

The Townsend Smith Foundation would like to thank La Rose Italian Bakery and Deli, as well as their family, friends, staff and suppliers, for the very successful fundraiser held on our behalf on June 8th.

The contribution and support given to us in raising funds and increasing public awareness to establish a hospice for the Milton community is greatly appreciated.
