MTC comes through in the clutch to win InterCounty C mixed title

Milton Tennis Club's (MTC) InterCounty C team netted some high-stakes, high-pressure success at the Rex-all Centre.

Winning three of four super tiebreakers at the home of the Canadian Open recently, the local squad cleared the final hurdle to the GTA mixed league championship — upstaging Bayview Village 4-2 for the title. It was MTC's first InterCounty triumph since 2008, when the 'A' team reigned supreme. Following an opening-round loss, the 12-player squad reeled off four match victories — two in comeback fashion — to prevail. Igniting the successful surge were Karen Jones and Richie Singh, who after being edged 6-4 in set one rallied for a 7-5 victory and then outlasted their opponents 10-5.

Showing an equal amount of stamina in the next round, Peter Grimwood and Regina Devine won 6-4, 5-7, 10-4. From there, Cassie Smith and Kathy Chappell swept their Bayview Village rivals 7-5, 6-4.

This set the stage for the championship-clinching match, which fittingly enough came in a particularly dramatic tiebreaker.

Colin Carslake and Andreas Meyer battled back from a 6-3 loss to win 6-1 and then eked out an 11-9 nail-biter to seal the deal. Captain Dave Adams and Saeed Ahmed dropped a day-ending tiebreaker to Bayview Village, while taking a tough opening-round defeat were Bertram Lewis and Mike Rozenveld.

Earning home-court advantage throughout the playoffs, as West Division champs, MTC bested Pine Point, Lawrence Park and North

York en route to the finals. They prevailed in a 'C' division with roughly 60 teams.

Preisner makes Tulsa U. cross-country travel team

Ben Preisner was bound to see a lot of the U.S. over his time with the University of Tulsa cross country team.

Ben Preisner

But the 18-year-old Miltonian wasn't about to take the scenic route to that.

Less than two months after heading south, the long-distance running ace has already made the cut for the Hurricanes' travel team — receiving official word of this last week. He's the only freshman to make the cut.

His inclusion to the travel team followed a 24:10.2 (over five miles) performance at the Notre Dame Invitational October 3.

Preisner placed 50th overall and helped Tulsa's boys squad place ninth in the meet's Division 1 ranks. He clocked in just 19 seconds back of the top-placing Hurricane Marc Scott (junior).

"It's a big honour to make the team as a true freshman," said Preisner. "I'm glad coach (Steve) Gulley was able to see the potential in me and I hope to contribute as best as possible."

His official introduction to the travel team comes during this weekend's pre-nationals in Terre Haute, Indiana.

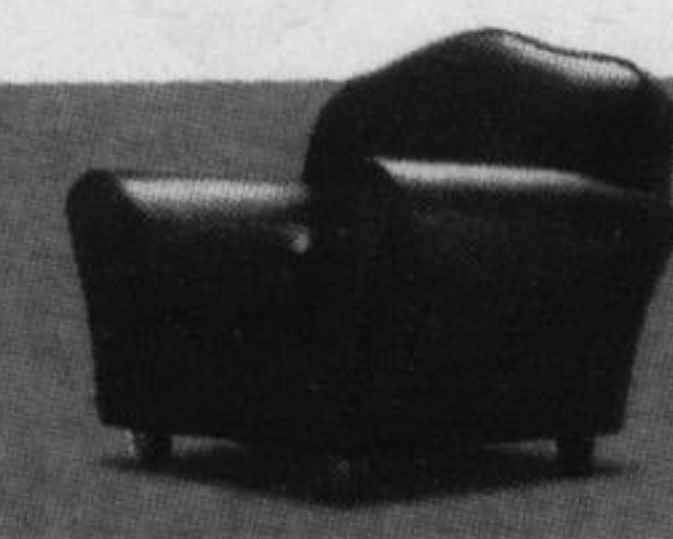

You're their world.
And that's worth protecting.
