Candidate endorsement unethical, believes reader

Dear Editor:

The October 16 editorial appears to be an endorsement of Gordon Krantz for mayor. Being Milton's only local newspaper, I believe the Champion should remain neutral.

You claim that experience is key — key to what? Each candidate brings his or her own ideas. I believe it's unethical for this paper to favour one candidate over another.

Why is it that information about all-candidates meetings and debates has appeared in the paper after they have taken place, in particular the one on October 1?

There was an all-candidates meeting in Campbellville October 15. Why was it not publicized in your paper in advance? I found out about it quite by chance.

As a local newspaper you have a responsibility to keep the community informed on local events, especially during an election campaign.

Hopefully, this letter will be published in your next edition.
