HAWKE, June
It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of June Hawke, on Thursday, October 30, 2014, at the age of 69 (26 and holding). She passed comfortably at home due to complications related to the cancer she's battled for the past two years. June leaves behind her cherished daughter Denica Hawke and her adored grandchildren Sarah, Meghan, Tommy, Lilly, Joey and her great-grandson Carter. She will also be sadly missed by her siblings, many nieces, nephews, family and friends. At June's request, Cremation has taken place. Those who've known June understand that she was strongly against the fuss of a formal service, and that many of her long time best friends have spent time with her at Puslinch Lake over the past 30 years. Therefore, a memorial will be planned for the spring at McClintock's Pavilion.

In Loving memory of a dear husband, Father and Nonno who left us on November 6, 1990.

Those we love don't go away, They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed and very dear. For death leaves a heartache no one can ever heal And leaves a memory no one can ever steal.
