Man faces drug charges

Halton police have charged an 18-year-old Milton man with several drug-related offences. On Tuesday, police say they searched a home in Milton. Police say they seized marijuana, MDMA (ecstasy), oxycodone, morphine, codeine, a replica firearm, digital scale and drug packaging. Owen Hill faces charges of trafficking of a controlled substance, two counts of possession for the purpose of trafficking, three counts of possession of a controlled substance, three counts of breach of probation and possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose.

Bus fire snarls traffic

The Milton Fire Department responded to a fully-involved bus fire on the westbound Hwy. 401 in Milton during the evening commute last Thursday. Reports from the scene indicated a Greyhound bus had caught fire five kilometres west of Guelph Line just before 6 p.m. The fire department said there were no injuries. The incident snarled commuter traffic as firefighters worked to extinguish the blaze.
