

Need will continue to grow: Janjevich

5. has the energy to keep up to his wife.

"She's the one everyone knows and everyone talks about," he laughed, adding they will focus this year's campaign on encouraging those community members who are not quite on board with United Way as well as continuing to count on the long-term supporters.

United Way supports more than 25,000 Miltonians through some 29 agencies, such as Food4Kids, Girls Inc. of Halton, John Howard Society and St. John Ambulance.

Janjevich emphasized the importance of United Way Milton and said the need will continue to grow. In the future, the fundraising target will likely be $1 million.

"This past campaign, we used a grassroots approach, an 'if we build, it they will come,'" she said. "The impact these funds has is amazing and that's why it deserves our support."

She said she began seeing random emails from people — new supporters — who had heard and seen what United Way Milton has done and they wanted to help them.
