

Brathwaite hit big shots at right time, says Royals' teammate

37 "When you have five guys working together like they were, it's tough to defend." Esteban said in the fourth quarter his squad let Royals shooters get wide open, opening up the lanes.

When asked to name any key individual efforts for her Royals, Juzenas said there were moments that every one of her players contributed to the win.

David was more succinct when asked the same question.

"Jordan (Brathwaite) hit the big shots at the right time," he said of the Royal who runs the offence. Brathwaite hit a pair of three-pointers and was four-for-four from the foul line in the decisive fourth quarter.

Ochu's big moments came at the end of the third quarter on a pair of threes that tied the game and a couple of free throws to start the fourth. It gave Bishop Reding a lead — the first of the game — that it would not relinquish.

Both teams are after OFSAA berths. The Longhorns' path to the AAA provincials is tougher, with two wins needed. They have to beat Cathedral in Hamilton Thursday and then knock off the Peel AAA champ Monday to head to OFSAA.

The Royals need only a win against Hamilton Catholic rep St. Jean de Brebeuf at home Thursday at 4:30 p.m. to qualify for provincials at the AAA level.

Gerrits' landings better: head coach

37 super final, the teammates switched positions, with Rochon finishing fifth.

"We've been building to this all year," said aerial head coach Dennis Capicik. "Things are really starting to come along. We had a great training camp in Lake Placid. They're more prepared and have more of a rhythm when jumping. I'm very happy. Travis was so close to the podium. Him and Olivier were doing big jumps. You have to be happy whenever your athletes make the top-six super final. I'm proud of both of those guys today. They're starting to become the aerialists I know that they are."

Gerrits said a shift in focus following the previous World Cups, where he finished 16th and 21st, helped him in Russia.

"After Lake Placid, I really took the time to take a step back from competing and focus on the mental aspect of the sport. It's huge in aerials. I really focused on the process. It's a great feeling being in the super finals with Oli."

With the next World Cup set for Sunday in Minsk, Belarus, Capicik believes Gerrits is just beginning to show his full potential.

"He was fourth today and he can jump even better than that. This is why I've always believed in Travis so much. I know what he's capable of. He was more consistent and his landings are becoming better."
