Champion reporter earns national award

Champion reporter Julie Slack has once again been recognized with a newspaper industry award. Her story about former town councillor Rick Day and his wife's narrow escape from a home fire took second place in the Canadian Community Newspaper Association's Best News Story category in the 12,500 and over circulation class.

Julie Slack

Slack is also a finalist for an Ontario Community Newspaper Association award. She's one of three nominees in the Heritage Story category for her article on Norm Etheridge's emotional connection to the restoration of the Lancaster bomber. The first, second and third place finishers for the provincial award will be announced at an awards gala in Toronto May 22.
