Children's therapy centre opens

The Children's Therapy and Development Centre on Bronte Street held its grand opening last Thursday, which coincided with World Autism Day. The centre offers programs for children with developmental and behavioural issues. Above, directors Sivajini Sivalingam (left) and Gopika Menon show sensory balls in the centre's sensory room, which are used in the treatment of kids with autism. Inset, Sivalingam and Menon are joined by Mayor Gord Krantz and sisters Ashley (left) and Alisha Jude for the ribbon-cutting. Graham Paine / Metroland West Media Group (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)
