Razor-thin victory for Milton District improv-ers at Toronto Regionals

20-With one of its strongest-ever showings in the life category and an overall impressive performance, the seven-member squad edged out Burlington's M.M. Robinson by the narrowest of margins — 1131-1130 — to once again stamp its ticket to Ottawa. "Sydney really stepped up and we had a lot of help from some of the former team members with one-time workshops," said Graham, whose improv-ers' dynasty is highlighted by an overall national triumph in 2012. "They're so passionate about improv and that's what allowed us to carry on." Captaining this year's team, Brittney Marvell and fellow returns Kyle Chaudhry, Callum Fisher and Kevin Clark appear to have developed the right chemistry with newcomers Jen Foster, Jessica Johnson, Charlotte Ayaz and Olivia Hill. Enough for MD to make a return to the nationals' top-five finale? "It's hard to say. That's kind of the essence of improv... living in the moment. You never know," said Graham. The CIG national championships are slated for April 21 to 25. Steve LeBlanc can be reached at sleblanc@miltoncanadianchampion.com.
