Vehicle in fatal crash had no insurance

A Toronto man stands convicted of allowing a vehicle to be operated without insurance three years after a Mississauga man was killed in a horrific car crash on No. 5 Sideroad. Halton police say the vehicle involved in the May 25, 2012 crash was the subject of a rental agreement between the driver and Toronto-based vehicle rental company, Eleven Star Car and Truck Rental. Halton police investigated the single-vehicle crash — a Honda civic rollover between Fourth and Fifth Lines — that killed passenger Has-eeb Kamal, 21, and injured three others. Police say they found three people, including the man who died, lying outside the car, which was destroyed. The vehicle wasn't covered by a valid insurance policy, according to police. Asim Ali, 28, was convicted of causing or permitting a motor vehicle to be operated without insurance.
