Lighting up the night

Residents enjoyed a spectacular Victoria Day weekend fireworks display both Sunday and Monday nights as part of Boomfest at the Milton Fair Grounds. Sponsored by Scooter's Catering, the three-day event featured a wide variety of activities for the whole family. See more Boomfest photos on page 26. Jayson Mills / Special to the Champion

CN must apply to CTA for hub approval

By Rachael Williams

CN Rail has one more hoop to jump through before any decision can be made in regard to the intermodal terminal proposed for south Milton.

The Canadian National Railway Company has been told by the Canadian Transportation Agency (CTA) that it will need to submit an application to the CTA for its construction of a 400-acre intermodal hub. CN spokesperson Mark Hallman told the Champion the application requirement was unforeseen.

"CN, based on past Canadian Transportation Agency precedent decisions regarding projects similar in scope to the Milton Logistics Hub, was not expecting CTA approval would be required for its hub project," said Hallman. According to the agency, the proposed

No university campus on way

After seven years of planning and millions of dollars on the line, the Town of Milton has learned that it won't be getting a university campus — at least not this year.

The Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities announced last Thursday that a fund earmarked for the expansion of a post-secondary institution would be going to York University for the new Markham Centre, in partnership with Seneca College. Wilfrid Laurier University submitted a bid for a campus to be built in the Milton Education Village off of Tremaine Road.

"It is a profound disappointment for the university and for the community partners with whom we have worked very hard over the past seven years," said Max Blouw, president and vice-chancellor of Laurier.

Mayor Gord Krantz also expressed disappointment.

"While I am thoroughly disappointed and saddened by this decision, it only strengthens our resolve to make the Milton Education Village a reality," said Krantz. "A
