Four dogs found in deplorable conditions returned to owner

By David Lea
METROLAND WEST MEDIA GROUP

Four dogs seized by the Oakville and Milton Humane Society (OMHS) after being found in deplorable conditions in rural Milton with 35 other animals have been returned to their owner.

On February 13, the humane society, along with a local veterinarian and Halton police, executed a search warrant of a property in the area of Trafalgar Road and Hwy. 401 after receiving a tip about a neglected donkey.

While no donkey was found, the group discovered 28 dogs — seven of them just eight to 10 days old — as well as 10 rabbits and one cat.

The humane society reported the animals had inadequate shelter, no food and only frozen water in their bowls.
