

Mayor held up by Pan Am security

"Only doing their job," says Krantz after issue with pass at velodrome

Mayor Gord Krantz can certainly attest to the vigilance of security at the Cisco Pan Am Games Velodrome. He has the memory of a few anxious, annoyed moments to prove it. On July 16, Krantz and three Town of Milton colleagues — CAO Bill Mann, Director of Community Services Jennifer Reynolds and Communications Specialist Brett Kelly — headed to the velodrome for the first night of Pan Am Games track cycling. The mayor was set to hand out the first set of medals, which made it especially awkward when he was hung up at the security check point shortly before the racing got underway. It seems the bar code on his all-access pass was not reading properly — showing 'yellow,' which indicates a potential risk. "It's strange since I'd already used
