

Under the 'Big Top'

DQ hosts miracle event in support of SickKids

Dairy Queen Restaurant locations across the nation are gearing up for the coolest fundraiser of the year: Miracle Treat Day. Slated for Thursday, Aug. 13, the fundraising event is designed to raise funds for the Children's Miracle Network through the sale of Blizzard treats. Money raised at Dairy Queen Restaurant locations in Halton support The Hospital for Sick Children (SickKids). Locally, residents can turn out to Milton's Dairy Queen, 500 Laurier Ave., Unit 16, and support the cause. Every day, more than 4,900 children are treated at 14 Children's Miracle Network member hospitals in Canada. In 2013/2014, SickKids managed 8,525 clinic visits from 2,992 patients in the Halton region. Since partnering with the Network in 1984, Dairy Queen has raised more than $100 million for sick children in North America.
