

Ahoy, matey!

The Pirate Festival made its annual summer visit to Country Heritage Park over the holiday weekend, complete with plenty of swashbuckling entertainment for the whole family. Clockwise from top left, Captain Tod Rowland and Tracy Rowland duel during a pirate play. Craig Weber tries out a mini-catapult with two-year-old son Farley. Brooke, 7, and Hunter Taylor, 5, enjoy one of the performances. Three-year-old Tav Irving comes dressed for the occasion. Six-year-old Daniel Cazan practises his bow and arrow shooting under the watchful eye of pirate Stef Proctor.
