

Two decades later, Singletons still lighting up the holidays

Couple's elaborate Christmas display draws residents year after year

Paul Singleton admits he's lost count of the number of lights his Christmas display features.

Of course the number of smiles received from holiday visitors to his 8565 Guelph Line residence would be awfully difficult to keep tabs on as well.

"It's a hobby that got way out of hand," he's fond of telling those who come out to view the display, which — at the risk of sounding dramatic — simply has to be seen to be believed.

Now in its 20th year, the Singletons' holiday project, which includes countless hours of work enthusiastically taken on by Paul, wife Barb and their children, features thousands upon thousands of lights and dozens of display boxes.

Many of those are of the inter-

Paul and Barb Singleton's Guelph Line property is decked out for the holidays. Their massive Christmas display is constantly evolving and has now become a family tradition for many who turn out to the Campbellville address annually. Justin Greaves / Canadian Champion (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)

Help us build a Christmas light tour

Many Miltonians use this time of year to exercise their creative flair and brighten up their neighbourhoods with eye-catching light and ornament displays.

Let us know about amazing and beautiful homes decorated for the festive season and we'll plot a route for you to enjoy the magical lights of Christmas.

To submit your address or that of your neighbour, simply visit www.insidehalton.com and click on the Christmas Light Tour link at the top right-hand side of the home page. The deadline to be included on in the Champion's Christmas Light Tour is Monday, Dec. 14.

Map

Upon receipt of the addresses, we'll create an online map that will guide you from one enchanted destination to the other.

Starting on Friday, Dec. 18, you can visit the Champion's website (www.insidehalton.com), where you'll find the directions to take part in the self-guided tour of Milton's best dressed homes for the holidays.

A Holiday Gift Just for You!

Enjoy your 2015

Rate for Life!

Imagine the peace of mind that comes from knowing the monthly rate you agree to today will never change! This exclusive offer applies to those that leave a deposit by December 31, 2015 and move in to a Seasons residence by February 29, 2016. This is a limited time offer- please call today for more details!

 Seasons
MILTON

Retirement Community

905-864-6888

760 Bronte Street South, Milton

www.seasonsretirement.com

Certain conditions apply.*