

Annual nativity pageant set

Milton's popular Nativity Pageant is set for its 14th instalment, as 'On the Way to Bethlehem' awaits visitors to Country Heritage Park this coming weekend.

Slated for Friday (Nov. 27) to Sunday (Nov. 29) — running from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. each night — the pageant is organized by Milton Area Christian Churches Working Together and directed by Dr. Andrea Rowbottom.

It follows the story of Joseph and Mary's journey to Bethlehem and features a number of different stations leading up to the birth of Jesus. Thousands of area residents are expected out over the weekend pageant, which sees dozens of volunteers return year after year.

Admission is $5 for adults and is free for children. The pageant runs regardless of weather conditions.

Country Heritage Park is located at 8560 Tremaine Rd.

Actors play the role of Jesus, Mary and Joseph during the 2014 instalment of the nativity pageant, On the Way to Bethlehem. This year's pageant takes place this weekend at Country Heritage Park. Champion file photo
