Dog Guides, specifically, can make life simpler and less stressful for many, including residents in Milton.

Dogs are a man's best friend, but the ones who can see and guide him are a lifeline that is unbeatable.

Lions Foundation of Canada Purina Walk for Dog Guides in Milton will be held on Sunday (May 29), at E.C. Drury School for the Deaf, Diane and John Crozier, Karen Jarvis, Meagan Phelps and Martin Pajak walk with Peach, Paige, Linley, Carmel and Ranger, in advance of the May 29 Purina Walk for Dog Guides.

with registration at noon and the walk starting at 1 p.m. This year's event is being organized by Miltonian Jennifer Smith.

There is no registration fee and 100 per cent of the funds go toward the cause. You can register and raise funds in advance at www.purinawalkfordogguides.com/locations/walk.cfm?ID=668.

The walk itself is a national fundraiser held in more than 200 communities.

Lions Foundation of Canada provides training for Dog Guides to meet the needs of people with hearing, medical and physical disabilities, visual impairment, epilepsy, autism and type 1 diabetes. These service dogs are provided to the qualified applicants at no cost. The government does not provide any funding for this cause and the foundation relies solely on fundraising for support.

Local sponsors include: Ginos Pizza, Pet Valu, Karens Hair Design, Aiden N Co, Nikki Dambrosi (Arbonne Independent Consultant), Sobeys, Longos, Springridge Farm, Goodlife Fitness, Mike Streeter Photography, Andrea Hein Occasions, Ooh La La Boutique, Woof Walking & Co, and Canadian Tire.
