Drug deal turns violent

Halton police are looking for one suspect after a marijuana transaction went wrong last Wednesday night (July 6), leaving one man with a knife wound to the neck.

At 9:18 p.m., police were contacted by a citizen reporting that a man had been stabbed in the area of Brian Best Park, located at Commercial Street and Williams Avenue.

Police and emergency medical services responded to the area, where they found a 22-year-old man with a stab wound to his neck. He was transported to hospital, where he was treated and released.

Police say the victim had been in the area of Sydney Drive and Commercial Street to meet another man to purchase marijuana. Police say he got into the passenger seat of the suspect's car, which headed to a parking lot at Brian Best Park.

The suspect asked the victim to show him the money, which was a predetermined amount. The victim reluctantly showed the money and the suspect began counting it.

The suspect allegedly told the victim to get out of the car, taking the cash without providing the marijuana.

A physical altercation ensued. During the altercation a knife was allegedly produced. The victim eventually exited the vehicle and discovered he had been injured.

The suspect is described as white, early 20s, 5-foot-10 to 6-foot, with a slender build. As a result of the altercation he likely suffered some facial injuries. Anyone with any information should call Det. Tom Hockney at (905) 825-4747 ext. 2491 or contact Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 or the web at www.haltoncrimestoppers.com.
