Bonding on the pitch

Don't Give Up

When golf balls were first manufactured, they were made with a smooth cover. Before long, however, it was discovered that after a ball had been roughed up, a golfer could get more distance out of it. As a result, companies started manufacturing them with dimpled covers. It is like that in life; rough spots often empower us to go further.

So, in the darkest hour of personal desperation, don't give up! Look to go further. Know that God will help you - just ask.

To learn more about God's empowering love and how it can impact your life, consider visiting a local place of worship this week! See the Religious Directory for meeting times and locations!
